"SOUS LE BOIS DE NOËL ET LES BELLES FILLES"

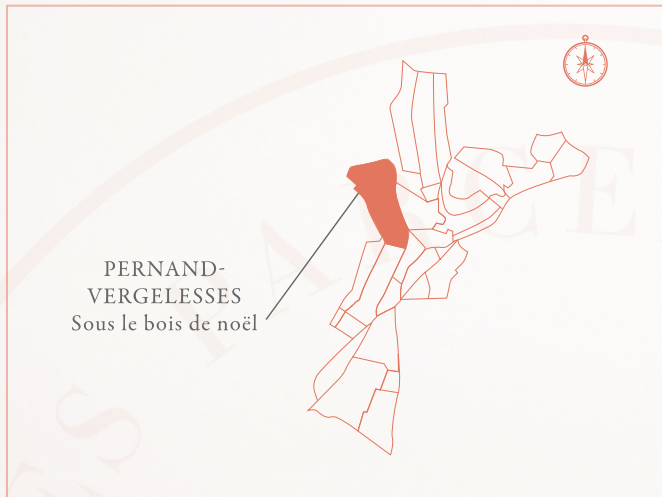

SILKY AND RICH

THIS "CLIMAT"

This Climat is located beneath the Bois de Noël. The nuns at a convent in Changey were in the habit of walking on the edge of this wood and "et Belles Filles" (and Pretty Girls) was a natural addition!

TERROIR

The "Les Belles Filles" parcel is at the top of the east-facing steep slopes just next to the Premiers Crus. The terroir consists of lime-rich white marl and iron-rich clays.

TASTING

Appearance: Brilliant and radiant straw gold colour

Bouquet: Very expressive with significant complexity characterised by notes of white flowers and a few mineral hints.

In the mouth: Initially fresh, silky with an elegant, floral character, structured and mellow with flint and fruit aromas, balanced between acidity and woodiness, a rich, balanced finish.
