SPICY AND ELEGANT

TERROIR

Oriented towards the rising sun, this terroir consists of limestone mixed with clay-rich marl to a depth that ranges from a few tens of centimetres to one metre.

TASTING

Appearance: Brilliant red

Bouquet: Very light peony floral fragrances supplemented with intense ripe raspberry and redcurrant aromas and lifted with a spicy hint of clove and white pepper.

In the mouth: Complexity and balance, lots of intensity and a good body, silky texture with well-integrated tannins, woody elegance, generous and satisfying finish.
